

Grievance Redressal Cell (Faculty)

The Faculty Grievance Redressal Cell addresses academic, administrative, workplace-related issues, and grievances received from faculty members of the institution. The DMIMS strives to maintain a healthy, professional, respectful, and supportive work environment where every faculty member can perform their duties without discrimination, harassment, or unfair treatment.

Aims and Objectives of the Cell

- To provide a proper platform for faculty members to raise their grievances and concerns.
- To address complaints and grievances of faculty members and facilitate their fair and peaceful resolution.
- To ensure that faculty members are treated with dignity, fairness, and respect in the workplace.
- To maintain confidentiality and sensitivity while dealing with grievances.
- To promote a positive, transparent, and harmonious working environment within the institution.

In Order to Make a Complaint

- Faculty members can use the suggestion/complaint boxes placed at various places at DMIMS; or
- They may approach any member of the Faculty Grievance Redressal Cell; or
- They may submit their grievances online by filling out the prescribed grievance form provided on website

The institute assures all faculty members that once a complaint is made, it will be treated with sensitivity, confidentiality, and impartiality.
